There is a special place reserved in my heart only for you. It is a place where I store precious memories of you and all your accomplishments. Now stands before me my grandson, my hero, no longer a boy, but a young man. I want you to know that I am filled with pride for the fine young man you have become. I am grateful beyond words for the happiness, which you have brought me and our family. I love you deeply Reece, and wish you the best of luck on your next adventure. I am so very proud of you.

Love Grandpa

I can't believe how time has flown, yet here we are at your high school graduation. I couldn't be prouder of your accomplishments, perseverance and dedication as you've worked toward this goal. You have so much to offer the world, and I can't wait to see where you go from here. You will forever have my unwavering love and support - even if you are an Aggie. Hook 'Em Love - Dad & Jill

We are so amazed by the young woman you've become. Between being the yearbook editor, taking extra classes, volunteering and holding down a job, we don't know how you slept at all! You have so many beautiful friendships and lifelong memories to take with you. We are excited to see you continue to grow the next four years at Texas A&M. You've worked so hard to get to this point; look up, take a deep breath and soak it all in. The world is ready for you, and it's a better place with you in it. We love you so much - Mom & Carl Miavane, Let us begin by saying how proud you have made us as parents while we raised you to be the young lady you are today. You are the gold standard for your younger siblings and have shown them the path of achievement. Your many accomplishments and accolades are outstanding in regards to recognition, but our true admiration has been your drive and determination. Your goal setting and milestones during your journey has given us so much appreciation, and has proven that you have always been in total control of what you want to achieve. Regardless of the difficulty, you have remained strong and independent, but knew when to lean on your family with certainty we would always be present when needed. Admittedly, guiding you through those obstacles were the times we loved the most.

As you enter the next act in your play of life, know that we look forward to our roles of guiding you even more, although you may feel the opportunities you need us are far less than before. We wish you the best and love you the most.

- Mami and Papi
