

Student Independent Diabetes Monitoring & Treatment at School

[student na at school or a school sponsored event during the 20 school year. Tradit medical care students might require at school, but CFISD is committed to sup independence in the monitoring and treatment of his/her diabetes. The Texa who can demonstrate their ability to appropriately monitor and treat their d and supplies and to manage their diabetes independent of the school nurse legal guardians are responsible to provide all of the supplies or equipment no all management plans and orders must be renewed annually.	oporting students with diabetes to gain as Health and Safety code allows students iabetes to transport their own medications or other school district staff. Parents or
The campus nurse has verified the following: □ a current order for self-management from the student's healthcare processed the student's parent has submitted written consent this school year monitoring and treatment; and □ the student has demonstrated to the school nurse his/her ability to: ○ self-administer necessary medications and treatment; ○ articulate the name and describe the purpose of each medication identify the prescribed dosage for each medication included in the articulate the time or circumstances for medication administration properly identify problems that require adult assistance in the scool use an appropriate personal sharps disposal container; and	for the student self-manage his/her n included in the treatment plan; he treatment plan; on;
o identify the medication's expiration date. I,
Parent Signature:Student Signature:	/20