World History
Scope and Sequence 2023-2024

Course Description: The purpose of this one-year course is to provide students with a chronological study of world history. The major emphasis of this course is on the study of significant people, events, and issues from the earliest times to the present. Students will examine historical points of reference, evaluate the causes and effects of economic imperialism, the historic origins of contemporary economic systems, trace the historical development of law, and analyze the impact of major religious and philosophical traditions. Students will analyze the connections between major developments in science and technology and the growth of industrial economies.

The length of each unit is a specific number of days, but it is understood that there is a range of +/- a day. The purpose of the flexibility is meant to allow teachers the opportunity to plan for the needs of their students and to accommodate re-teaching or review when necessary. If pre-assessment indicates student mastery could be obtained in a fewer number of days, the additional time could be used for extension or carried into the next unit.
